Part III DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejection - 35 U.S.C. § 112

1. Claim 28 is rejected under second paragraph 35 U.S.C. § 112, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

- a) Claim 28, page 92, lines 3 and 5, "or" is an indefinite because alternative language.
- b) Claim 28, lines 3-5, "a first half capacitor implemented on--" is indefinite and vague because it is not clear that the capacitor implemented means.

Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. § 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

3. Claims 1-2, 13, 18, 22, 28, 60, 68, 102-103, 107, 139-142 and 148 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) as being anticipated by Howard et al .

Howard discloses a capacitive printed circuit boards comprising a substrate 10; a chip 14; a means for affixing the chip to the substrate; means for powering the chip 34; and means for capacitively signalling between the chip and the substrate (abstract); a second cip 14'; and means for capacitively signalling between the second chip and the substrate; a first module (fig. 5, indicated "A") having a electronic device and a first half-capacitor and a second module "B" having a second half capacitor and the first and the second capacitors provide a capacitive signal path between the modules (26, 40); a means for powering (34) the first module and the second module; a dielectric layer (44,46) disposed between the half capacitors; the dielectric layer is bonded to the first module and the second module and provides a means for affixing the first module to the second module (Figure 5 and 6).

4. Claim 144 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
